

Jeffrey Keith Day, Sr.

Professional Experience

Principal of Jeff Day and Associates, LLC.

Founding Principal: Architectural firm providing Architectural Design & Planning for Residential, Commercial, and Ecclesiastical projects, with a focus on Sustainable (GREEN) design & construction backed by the following 16 years of hands-on Architectural experience :

Project Manager with Krejci Associates, Architects

Project Management: contributing to the day to day project management, from programming and design, through design development, construction documentation, and construction administration of multiple residential projects including additions, and large scale residences. Also providing color illustration services.

Project Manager with St. Louis Design Alliance

Project Management: contributing to the day to day project management, from programming and design, through design development, construction documentation, and construction administration of multiple residential projects including additions, and large scale residences, and Churches in the St. Louis area.

Project Manager with Dick Busch Architects

Project Management: contributing to the day to day project management, from programming and design, through design development, construction documentation, and construction administration of multiple large scale residential projects, and providing color illustration services.

Project Manager with Lepique & Orne Architects

Project Management: contributing to the day to day project management, including, construction documentation, and construction administration of multiple large scale religious and educational facility projects, and providing color illustration services.

Project Manager with DMA Corporation

Project Management: prepared construction documentation, of multiple large scale educational facility projects, and multi-family housing projects. Also providing color illustration services.

Architectural Draftsman with Kurt Landberg Architects

Architectural Drafting: prepared construction documentation for multiple large scale religious and educational facility projects, and interior finish layouts for several clothing retailers

Education:

St. Louis Community College at Meramec

Associate in Applied Sciences, Architectural Technology 1997

Ranken Technical College

Architecture Technology Program 1994, 1995

Hazelwood Central Senior High School

Florissant, Missouri 1993

Community Service:

Building Commissioner, Pasadena Hills, Missouri 2007 to present

Pasadena Hills Missouri Historic Board & Committee, 2000-2001, 2007 to present

Tower Village Nursing facility Board of Directors, 2001-2003